Ezra Weston Loomis Pound (30 October 1885 – 1 November 1972) was an expatriate American poet and critic, and a major figure in the early modernist poetry movement. His contribution to poetry began with his development of Imagism, a movement derived from classical Chinese and Japanese poetry, stressing clarity, precision and economy of language. His works include Ripostes (1912), Hugh Selwyn ...

The concept of obedience to superiors is built into the history of civilized society, and no culture worthy of the name has existed without stressing the respect which is due to legitimate authority or the duties of those in command. While much diluted through centuries of use, the very word piety, derived from the Latin pietas, basically means devotion to the source of our being - beginning ...

Well of course my best of list would be filled with books by Conundrum Press but I can't choose between my babies so here is another list. No best of 2018 list in comics can ignore the monumental achievement Berlin by Jason Lutes. I've been following this series and stopped at one point so I could have it all collected to read through in one sitting.
