Chamomile Mourning A Tea Shop

Laura Childs' tea shop mystery series is great and the setting in Charleston is superb. It will make you want to visit there if you haven't already done so. I have, but a simple map of the main part of Charleston used as a setting in the book would be a great addition for those of us who like to have a sense of the physical layout of the story.

Chamomile Mourning combines a unique view of Charleston, South Carolina from the point of view of long time residents, with a who-done-it murder mystery. It is a fairly quick read, with an ending that is refreshingly surprising. I loved the local color and the descriptive phrases that sent me on a quick vacation to the eastern seaboard.
