I read the Miles bio, but I can't even remember it, so it must not have stood out of the crowd. Of the recent bios I thought Ben Pleasants' Visceral Bukowski was a good read. He seemed a bit hung up on hammering home the "Bukowski was a Nazi" point, which I think would have made just as much of an impact without attempting to sensationalize it.

barry miles' Buk bio | Charles Bukowski - American author

Barry Miles' book is the worst bio I've read of Bukowski. Thankfully I picked it up at the library. Miles calls "Fire Station" a short story and references the Bukowski poem about showering with Linda King as a poem about Linda Lee.
