"Claimed" by K.R Smith is a paranormal romance novella and I enjoyed reading it. It's a werewolf story, little different of what I have used to read so far. In which way? Here the werewolves aren't the I-want-to-look-like-a-badass-man-but-I-am-a-good-guy type but they are nice men who live in a quiet place with their families.

K.R. Smith (Author of Claimed) - Goodreads

Jessica Tandy is coming back from a camping trip in Alaska, when she meets the tall, dark and handsome Flint Riverclaw. They chat in a bar during a rest stop, which eventuates into a one-night-stand, and ultimately changes the rest of her life. Why do Flint's brown eyes occasionally glow turquoise, or he growls so much? Imaginations run wild, in this supernatural, romance novella.

Why go for something cold and dead when you can have something hot and panting? 'Scent' is a delicious tail of a fiery relationship when at first the Last Circulator can't stand the tribe's sarcastic and most dangerous Werewolf, however their feelings change to a forbidden love. Then bake in Alaska as a sanctuary after World War Three, garnish with differing species of Vampires, other ...
