Best answer: Just under half are monarchist, a much smaller percentage are republican, but most really don't know much about this, nor do they care. Most consider the Queen to be a figurehead without any power. The fact that this is an incorrect notion does not really matter. Most Canadians really don't think about this much.

Best Answer: Well I don't take this as hard as some of my fellow Canadians seem to be doing. First off, as an historian, I'd point out that (net) emigration from Canada to the United States has been an important feature of this country's history so our questioner has a valid point, even if one phrased with less tact than might have been wished.
