A few years ago I scanned all of Dave Sim's notebooks. He had filled 36 notebooks during the years he created the monthly Cerebus series, covering issues #20 to 300, plus the other side items -- like the Epic stories, posters and prints, convention speeches etc. A total of 3,281 notebook pages detailing his creative process.

Community Reviews. The very beginning of the saga by Dave Sim! To people that know Cerebus for its tackling of sociopolitical issues, spirituality, and male & female relations, this book gives no indication of it. Early on, Cerebus the Aardvark is simply a wandering barbarian motivated by money and booze.

From 1977 until 2004, cartoonist Dave Sim chronicled the life of an anthropomorphic aardvark in the pages of his comic "Cerebus." One of the most important and groundbreaking independent comics of all time, "Cerebus" delved into politics, religion, gender and pop culture, all seen through Sim's satiric eye, and in the 300th and final issue, exactly as Sim had long promised, Cerebus ...
