Globalisation. The Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church (2004) points out that globalisation has the power 'to produce potentially beneficial effects for the whole of humanity', as a result of the growth that has been made possible through the interplay between economic-financial globalisation and progress in technology. (Compendium, paragraph 362)

2,000 Years of Catholic Ethics by Rob Esdaille. At its core, Catholic Social Teaching is simply the attempt to spell out the ethical consequences of the confession, "Jesus is Lord," for the way in which we live. It is important to note that it is faith which is the starting-point for this reflection, not simply concern about particular issues facing society.
