Foster homes are the pits. It's a tough life filled with tough choices, growing up fast, and fighting to survive. Fighting is one of the few things Zoey understands. Zoey has one thing to her advantage: she was born with the ability to see fae. Because of this, she is recruited by the Department of Molecular Genetics (DMG) to help protect the world from magical threats.

"Collector #1: City in Embers" by Natalie Hatch

City in Embers started out a bit strange in the way the characters, their backgrounds, and the world around them were introduced. It sort of threw you into the action and then took a step back, which was confusing at first, but in hindsight, actually worked well with regards to the plot development.
