The annotations for the Cinderella fairy tale are below. Sources have been cited in parenthetical references, but I have not linked them directly to their full citations which appear on the Cinderella Bibliography page. I have provided links back to the Annotated Cinderella to facilitate referencing between the notes and the tale.

The father thought, "Can it be Cinderella?" and had an axe brought and cut the tree down, but no one was on it. And when they got into the kitchen, Cinderella lay there amongst the ashes, as usual, for she had jumped down on the other side of the tree, had taken the beautiful dress to the bird on the little hazel-tree, and put on her grey gown.
